Dear Jim:

Just a note to let you know how pleased we are with OrLANtech service.

And that comes from a business owner who has been "burned" over the years by a world-class selection of so-called computer consultants.

OrLANtech is no computer consultant!

You are hands-on problem solvers who worry about what keeps me awake at night. I have yet to call with a computer problem or question that you didn't jump into the fray and take the problem off my mind. That's service!

You save me time, money and frustration. What more can I ask for?

Sincerely,

Roger W. Pynn, APR
